Cymric Was Used as a Troop Ship in 1914.

NEW YORK, May 9.-The Cymric was requisitioned by the British Government as a troop ship in August, 1914, but was restored to the line a few months afterward.

The Cymric carried 110 men in her crew when she sailed. According to the Whi. Star officers and J. J. McPherson, British vice consul in charge of shipping, there were no Americans in the crew. On the voyage from Liverpool she carried 114 men, but 12 deserted here and only eight new men were hired to replace them. The vessel was in command of Capt. F. E. Beadnell, who has been in the White Star service 20 years, and was at one time in command of the Baltic.

In addition to the crew, five distressed British seamen who had been ill here were on the steamer.

She Tried to Prevent Shooting, but Revolver Was Discharged.

Mrs. Helen Moore, 34 years old, shot and killed her mother, Mrs. Helen Paus, 64, in the basement of their home, 2623 Ohio avenue, at 11 o'clock this morning. The shooting followed a quarrel, in which Mrs. Moore had been arrayed against her mother and her sister, Mrs. Carrie Hartmann. Mrs. Moore was ar

The first floor of the house was or upied by Mrs. Hartmann, her husband, Samuel Hartmann, a telegraph lineman and Mrs. Paus. Mrs. 'Joore, who cam here recently from Flat River, Mo., occupied the basement with her sons, Hermann, 14, and Roy, 12. An older son, Frank, is away at school. Mrs. Moore's husband is a traveling photographer and is not in St. Louis

When policemen seizea Mrs. Moore, few minutes after the killing, she begged that she might be permitted to kiss her mother, whose body lay in a corner of the basement room. The policeme granted her this privilege.

The two boys were weeping hysteri cally and Mrs. Moore was lamenting her act. The room was disarranged, in dicating that there had been a fight before the shooting.

Mrs. Hartmann told policemen that Mrs. Moore had a violent temper, and arty stayed until the very end of the that it had been difficult for the others in the house to get along with her. Yes terday afternoon, she said, the mother went to talk with her, in the hope of persuading her to act reasonably, but Mrs. Moore drove her back upstairs.

This morning, the mother went down-stairs again, Mrs. Hartmann accompanying her. Mrs. Moore was so abus-ive, her sister said, that the mother said to her, "I'll slap your face."

At this remark, Mrs. Hartmann said Mrs. Moore took a revolver from the bureau drawer, and pointed it at her mother. Mrs. Hartmann said she seized lown the weapon, but that it was dis charged. The bullet passed through Mrs. Paus' body, near the heart, caus-

"Not Enough Men in the Existing American Army to Patrol the Border"-President Wilson

PRESIDENT WILSON in discussing preparedness with the American Union against militarism at the White House, yesterday, said among other things:

There are not men enough in the existing American army to patrol that border. "That is the mere physical fact. When things are at sixes and seven in a neighboring country, as in Mexico, and everybody apparently a law unto himself, there are not men enough to safeguard that border."

THE accompanying mapillustrates the task involved. The border is more than 1300 miles long. There are spproximately 5000 militia in the three border states, or less than four men to the mile.

EL PASO, Tex., May 9 .- Arrangements for another conference between Gens. Scott and Obregon were being made today. At Gen. Obregon's headquarters it was stated that it was believed the meeting would take place this afternoon and confidence was expressed that an amicable adjustment would be reached.

Sub-Secretary of Foreign Affairs Amador called on Gen. Scott at noon and the two engaged in a conference in Gen. Scott's private car.

WASHINGTON, May 9.-National Guardsmen of three states, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, were called out by President Wilson today to aid in protecting the border against Mexican raiders. In addition virtually all remaining mobile troops of the regular army were ordered to join the border forces.

By these orders approximately 8000 additional troops were placed under Major-General Funston's command. Behind the orders is the plain intimation by admnistration officials that the whole strength of the National Guard will be similarly employed if necessary.

Members of the Efficiency Board declare the board cannot perform the work of standardising and classift work in the various departments less Mayor Kiel and Comptroller Player agree to restore an appropriation of $4000 that was cut from the estimate ir preparing the budget this year

Chairman Rogers of the Efficiency Board has informed the Mayor and Comptroller that he considers it obligatory and not optional that the board standardize department work, as the charter used the mandatory "shall" in irecting that this be done Comptroller Player told Chairman Rogers that it is not compulsory that standardization be undertaken at this time, and in view of the fact the city s facing a deficit of $300,000 in its revnues for the fiscal year ending next April, much important work in all departments has been postponed. To study the problem of classifying the employes of each department and standardizing the different grades of work, Chairman Rogers says it will require the addition of three clerks to the staff of 11, including three board memers, which now exists.

Mayor Kiel suggested that the Efficiency Board borrow clerks from other departments at such times as they can be spared, but Rogers said the work will require special training and could not be performed well if it were necessary to break in a new man every few days or weeks.

The investigation necessary in every city department could not be intrusted the said, as it will consist mainly of checkby department heads and subordir The purpose of standardization, Rogers explained to a Post-Dispatch er, is to equalize the pay and duties of workmen and officials of all kinds. American Note Accepting Germany's Concessions; Lansing's Statement of Position

COLLOWING is the text of the note cabled yesterday by Secretary Lansing to Ambassador Gerard at Berlin with instructions to deliver it to the German Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"The note of the Imperial German Government under date of May 4, 1916, has received careful consideration by the Government of the United States. It is especially noted as indicating the purpose of the Imperial Government as to the future, that it 'is prepared to do its utmost to confine the operation of the war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of the belligerents,' and that it is determined to impose upon all its commanders at sea the limitations of the recognized rules of international law upon which the Government of the United States has insisted.

"Throughout the months which have elapsed since the Imperial Government announced, on Feb. 4, 1915, its submarine policy, now happily abandoned, the Government of the United States has been constantly guided and restrained by motives of friendship in its patient efforts to bring to an amicable settlement the critical questions arising from that policy. Accepting the Imperial Government's declaration of its abandonment of the policy which has so seriously menaced the good relations between the two countries, the Government of the United States will rely upon a scrupulous execution henceforth of the now altered policy of the Imperial Government, such as will remove the principal danger to an interruption of the good relations existing between the United States and Germany.

"The Government of the United States feels it necessary to state that it takes it for granted that the Imperial German Government does not intend to imply that the maintenance of its newly announced policy is in any way contingent upon the course or result of diplomatic negotiations between the Government of the United States and any other belligerent Government, notwithstanding the fact that certain passages in the Imperial Government's note of the 4th inst. might appear, to be susceptible of that construction.

"In order, however, to avoid any possible misunderstanding, the Government of the United States notifies the Imperial Government that it cannot for a moment entertain, much less discuss, a suggestion that respect by German naval authorities for the rights of citizens of the United States upon the high seas should in any way or in the slightest degree be made contingent upon the conduct of any other Government

Lansing's Statement of American Position.

Secretary Lansing gave out a statement explaining that a large part of the latest German reply dealt with questions concerning the conduct of other belligerents which the American Government could not discuss with the Berlin Government.

Mr. Lansing's statement follows:

"The greater part of the German answer is devoted to matters which this Government cannot discuss with the German Government. The only questions which can be discussed with that Government are those arising out of their action or out of our own, and in no event those questions which are the subject of diplomatic exchanges between the United States and any other country.

"The essence of the answer is that Germany yields to our representations with regard to the rights of merchant ships and noncombatants on the high seas and engages to observe the recognized rules of international law governing naval warfare in using her submarines against merchant ships. So long as she lives up to this altered policy, we can have no reason to quarrel with her on that score, though the losses resulting from the violation of American rights by German submarine commanders operating under the former policy will have to be

"While our differences with Great Britain cannot form a subject of discussion with Germany, it should be stated that in our dealings with the British Government we are acting as we are unquestionably bound to act, in view of the explicit treaty engagements with that Government. We have treaty obligations as to the manner in which matters in dispute between the two Governments are to be handled. We offered to assume mutually similar obligations with Germany, but the offer was declined. When, however, the subject in dispute is a continuing menace to American lives, it is doubtful whether such obligations apply, unless the menace is removed during the pendency of the

The treaty with the British Government referred to is the convention negotiated by former Secretary Bryan, under which the two nations agree that any dispute arising shall be submitted to an investigating commission for one year before entering into hostilities. An offer to enter into such a treaty for Germany, brought a request for information, but formal negotiations never were instituted.

ALL-NIGHT CABARETS ABOLISHED

Chicago Cafes That Sell Liquors Bests Closing at 1 4, M. Tonight.

CHICAGO, May 8.—Chicago's all night cabarets no longer exist. A new city ordinance, passed a month ago, requiring restaurants where liquor is sold to close at 1 a. m., goes into effect to night. The ordinance practically classed such restaurants as saloons.

Another brdinance is being prepared for submission to the Council, which would prohibit dancing at places where druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

MASS MEETING ON

No agreement was reached at a con ference between a committee represent-ing the striking Hodcarrirs', Building and Common Laborers' Union No. 22, members of the Master Builders' Association. The unionists were told the builders would appoint a committee to consider their demands, and that ne-gotiations for a settlement would be pened after a mass meeting of all conractors of the city is held to consider

The Master Builders today appointed C. B. McCormick, James A. Gorfrey, G. H. Harvey, J. M. Taylor and J. H. Wise as a committee to confer with the committee of three from the Building-Trades Council, which organization is calling affiliated tradesmen from work n sympathy with the laborers.

builders' mass meeting will be neld on Thursday at 12:30 p. m., in the quarters of the Building Industries Asociation in the Century Building.

In the meantime, according to Maurice J. Cassidy, secretary of the Building Trades Council, the union men will continue to send its committee of 24 representatives of various trades about the city to ascertain where nonunion laborers are being used and to call off the union workers. Several large building jobs were stopped by these men yesterday, including the work of building a bathing beach at Sunset Hill Country Club and work on the St. Louis Frog and Switch Co. in Wellston.

The unionists report that many of the smaller contractors not affiliated with the Master Builders' Association are complying with the new scale and workng only union laborers. The laborers are asking 35 cents an hour, an eightour day and time and a half for over-

"Now I quite see the danger Mr. Pinchot perceives in the laws that he re-ferred to because they seem to associate military training with authority and to draw that tr into some sort of connection with millwith American training that every-body should know how to shoot and take care of himself. On the contrary, that is distinctly implied in our bills of rights where the right to carry arms is reserved to all of us. I should say it was not inconsistent with the traditions The President was informed that these of the country that the people abould their memorial with brief organization which would make nour listened to, and answered their ders, to do what a particular group of men might at the time think it was to have it do. nough to safeguard that border.
"And yet it is obviously the right thing to do to keep the disorders of ne country from flowing over to disurb the peace of another country. That is not militarism; that is necessity. do not need to tell you that I am just as much opposed to militarism as any man living—I think it is a deadly thing to get into the spirit of a nation, and I do not think there is the slightest danger of its getting into the spirit of this nation—only I have to determine a very ractical problem. I have to determi ow large an army is not unreasonable for the United States. The largest army proposed, that of the Chamberlain bill, is 250,000 men, and as compared with any European standard, that is extremely small in a nation of 100,000,000. So that unless you regard it as a prophecy there is nothing extravagant in an army of 250,000 men.

Traditions for Large Navy.

'The traditions of the American per e always have been for a very powerful navy. We have never been jealous isked if the navy had not been "in-

"Not tremendously," President Wilson "You see our tasks have increased tremendously; the amount of sea that we have found it necessary to police, to care for our distant posses sions and be ready for exigencies of the most ordinary kind, quite independently of war, has increased tremendously. So that I earnestly hope that we may not antagonize reasonable protection in our effort to avoid militarism. I do not hink it is going to need any very grea effort to avoid militarism, because quite agree with you that there we have got the sentiment of a great body of eople behind us and that, after all, is all that we care about.

"As to the general thing we are all most profoundly interested in and that s peace: We want the peace of the

"A nation which, by the standards of other nations, however mistaken those standards may be, is regarded as helpess, is apt in general counsel to be regarded as negligible and when you go nto a conference to establish foundations for the peace of the world, you nust go in on a basis intelligible to the ple you are conferring with."

This a "Year of Madness." A committeeman interposed to say that he was in London in 1895 at the time of the Venezuela complications and heard it said that if America had. a great navy, President Cleveland's mes-sage would have been regarded as an attempt at bullying and unquestionably would have led to war. "But this is not the year 1895," replied President Wilson. "This is a year of nadness. It is a year of excitement known before. All the world is seeing tains any longer. In the circumstances it is America's duty to keep her head, and yet have a very hard head, to know the facts of the world and to act on those facts with restraint, with reasoness, without any kind of misleadng excitement, and yet with energy and all that I am maintaining is this, that we must take such steps as are necessary for our own safety, as against the imposition of the standards of the est of the world upon ourselves.

We have undertaken very much mor han the safety of the United States. We ave undertaken to keep what we reard as demoralizing and hurtful Euroean influen- out of this hemisphere, and that means that if the world unertakes, as we all hope it will under take, a joint effort to keep the peace will expect us to play our proporional part in manifesting the force 'In the last analysis the peace of soclety is obtained by force, and /when action comes-it comes by opinion, but back of the opinion is the ultimate anplication of force. The greater body of opinion says to the lesser body of opinion: 'We may be wrong but you have to live under our direction for the time being until you are more numerous than we are.' That is what I under stand it amounts to. "Now let us suppose that we have formed a family of nations, and that family of nations says: 'The world is not going to have any more wars of this sort without at least first going through certain processes to show whether there is anything in its case or not.' If you say: 'We shall not have any war,' you have got to have the force to make that 'shall' bite, and the rest of the world, if America takes part in this thing, will have the right to expect from her that she contributes her element of force to that general understending. Surely, that is not a militaristic idea. That is a very practical

Miss Wald asked if this logically rould not lead to a limitless expansion of America's contribution. The President replied: "Well, logically, Miss Wald, but I have not the least regard for logic. I mean to say that I think in such affairs as we are now scussing, the circumstances are the logic. Now, quite opposite to anything you fear, I believe that if the world ever comes to combine its force for the purpose of maintaining peace, the indi-vidual contributions of each nation will be much less, necessarily, than they will in other circumstances; and that all they will have to do will be to contribute moderately and not indefinitely." Miss Wald remarked that the navy seemed committed to a policy of huge

How Navy Increases Came About. "Just let me say that there are really has not been any material change," the President said. "The only difference is this: We have been going on from year to year making certain additions, determined upon that year, all along look-ing forward to a series of years. Now ing forward to a series of years. Now all that we have done is to evolve the rest of the program. It is not altered to

Il Mobilized Rubbish Heaps as Far as Grand Avenue to Be Attacked Today.

The clean-uppers, who camped last night west of Euclid avenue, after sweeping everything before them from the city limits to that point, crossed Cuclid avenue early this morning and pressed farther eastward.

The invaders captured and carted away 135 loads of rubbish yesterday, which was more than was taken in the first day's advance last year, although all the territory west of Taylor avenue was occupied in the first day of the campaign a year ago.

Today all the mobilized rubbish between Euclid avenue and Sarah street will be routed. Tomorrow the cleanwill be routed. Tomorrow the clean-uppers will probably advance as far as

The Central Civics Committee of the Woman's Council is hard at work on the vacant lot situation. It is planned to have the owners clear the lots of rubbish, after which individuals or or-ganizations will fix them up as children's gardens, tennis courts, play-grounds and recreation fields. The cooperation of churches, Sunday schools, parent teachers' associations and neighborhood associations will be enlisted. John G. Lonsdale started the vacant lot subscription list with $100. Contributions should be sent to Lonsdale, as treasurer of the Continuous Clean Up and Paint Up Campaign, at the National Bank of Commerce, Broadway and Olive street.

SUGGESTS MUNICIPAL STATION FOR FREE BRIDGE PASSENGERS

President Kinsey Says Trains to Get to Union Station Will Have to Use Terminal Tracks.

A municipal passenger station at Twelfth and Gratiot streets, for trains entering the city over the Free Bridge, was sugested by President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service, in a talk before the Central Civic Council last night, as a possible means of avoiding a "bottling"

To reach Union Station the passenger trains using the Free Bridge will have to use a strip of the Terminal Association's track 1000 feet long. Kinsey believes this can be satisfacmaking body will uphold a charge for using this short section of track, which will equal the charge for cars hauled over the Terminal bridges, and through the tunnel or over the elevated tracks. But, if this expecta-tion should be disappointed, he said, the city could still solve the question by building its own station.

Kinsey also spoke of the agreement with the Terminal Association for the transference to the city of sections of track on the levee.

Daylight Saving Plan Is Expected to Save $12,500,000 Annually in Light Bills.

LONDON, May 9.—The House of Commons yesterday, after a short discussion adopted the motion of Sir Henry Norman, favoring daylight saving. The vote was 172 to 2. The daylight saving measure will go into effect Saturday, May 20, where at midnight clocks will be advanced one hour.

Very little objection was raised against mainly from those representing agricultural interests. Sir Henry Norman esti-mated that the economy ia lighting alone would be $12,500,000 yearly. Herbert L. Samuel, Home Secretary, on behalf of the Government, said that under such a measure there would be an enormous saving of coal, which was greatly needed by the entente allies.

FLAG HALF-MAST BY ACCIDENT

Ropes Get Twisted Around Pole on

Courthouse Roof. The Courthouse flag was at half-mast today, but nobody was dead. At least that was not the reason for the flag being at half-mast. The reason was that when it was being hoisted the ropes got twisted and it stopped half way up and could not be raised any further or Passersby did not know the ropes were twisted and they paused to inquire who was dead. Nothing has been done because it is hoped the wind will untangle the ropes and set the flag free. If it does not a steeple jack will have to be sent up to untangle the ropes.

A Delicious Sandwich

Served with Butter-Nut Bread. Just try t with a loaf of McKinney's Butter-Nut Bread. Spread lightly two slices with good butter. Next trim a leaf of lettuce to the required size and place on buttered surface of one of the slices. Chop finely the meat of six large-size olives, spread upon the lettuce, add a dash of mayonnaise and the second slice. Cut the sandwich diagonally with a sharp knife and you will have two delicious sandwiches, and because it's McKinney's Butter-Nut Bread they will taste much better than if other bread had been sed. There is a difference in bread.

Pool Halls Fight Sunday Closing. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 9.—A test of the validity of Sunday closing orders against pool halls will be made in Police Court here Thursday. One of the places, by agreement with the others, violated the order last Sunday and arrests followed. The pool hall owners contend the order is discriminatory.

Four grandchildren of Frank Leslie claimed they were parties at interest to the estate. But the surrogate ruled that the grandchildren were not legatees and that the residue of the estate should go to Mrs. Catt.

One of the Want Ads in the Post

Dollar a Live to You.
In the thousands of "want" offers appearing in the Post-Dispatch from day to day hundreds are worth a dollar a line or more to that number of persons. Are you one of the hundreds who are reaping these dollars?

For instance, a certain real estate offer if taken advantage of may become worth many times the amount suggested; rent saving in a better home for less money may make a for rent ad worth much more; one good business op-portunity, investment or a help wanted offer bringing a better position—all these and many others make the dollar a line value real indeed.

Think of it, 68,180 want ads were printed in the Post-Dispatch last month, 3701 more than appeared in the four other

15 HURT IN DAY BY AUTOS, BICYCLE AND MOTOR CYCLES

One Woman Hurt by a Boy's Wheel Was Dodging a Motor Truck.

Eight persons were hurt in automobile accidents, six in motor cycle accidents and one woman was injured when she was knocked down by a bicycle, on the city streets yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Hazenst'b, 44 years old, of 3155A Magnolia avenue, suffered a fractured left shoulder and internal injuries in being knocked down at Lafayette and Louisiana avenues, about 3 o'clock, when she was struck by the bicycle of Elmer Joerger, 16 years old, of 2917 St. Vincent *reet, in dodging from a mail truck. She was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital. She said the boy on the bicycle was not to blame for the accident.

Miss Clothilde Robinson, 16 years old, of 3611 Lafayette avenue was knocked down at Tenth and Olive streets by a beer truck driven by Charles E. Mudge. She stepped from behind a car into the auto's path. She was not seriously

Autor in Calliston

Abe Mayer, 24, of 5177 Maple avenue will probably lose the sight of one eye as the result of a collision of his auto, which he was driving with that of Robert S. Williams of 4633 South Broadway, in front of 3726 Washington boulevard. The windshield of Mayer's machine was shattered and the flying glass lacerated his left eyeball.

In the machine with Mayer was Blove Faskel, 11 years old, of Chester, II. The boy was cut by the flying glass Both were taken to the Jewish Hospital. Williams was accompanied by his mother. Their injuries were slight. Sam Levy, 22 years old, of 5980 Garfield avenue, was cut and bruised when he lost control of a truck he was driving and it crashed into the curb on Shaw avenue, near Spring avenue. Levy was thrown into a pile of building material.

Marcella Grimm, 7 years old, 2321 Salena street, suffered concussion of the brain when she was struck by the auto of Bojin Athanasoff, a saloon-keeper of 1601 Market street, at Pestalozzi and Salena streets. The child darted from behind a car into the pain of the machine. Athanasoff took her to St. Anthony's hospital, where her condition was said to be serious.

Messenger Is Injured.

Scott J. Killing, 16 years old, of 5011
Page boulevard, a messenger, was seriously hurt when he guided his speeding motor cycle into a pole to avoid hitting two women crossing the street in front of him at 4000 Olive street. His right foot was broken and he sustained cuts and possible internal injuries.

The women, Mrs. Fannie R. Hinckley of 5106 Westminster place, and Mrs. M. D. Allen of 3969 Washington boulevard, told the police the boy struck them before crashing into the post. Neither was seriously hurt.

Miss Alma Parkin of 4146 Cleveland avenue, 22, and her sister, Jessie, 18, and Mrs. Martin Higgins of Potosi, Mo., were knocked down by the motor cycle of Thomas Smith of 3345 Ohio avenue, at Grand and Shenandoah avenues, as they were crossing the street arm in arm. None was seriously hurt.

TOOK AUTO WITHOUT CONSENT AND DESERTED IT A WRECK

Man With Key to Garage and His Men and Women Companion. Traced by Police.

The discovery Sunday of an automobile belonging to L. G. Walther of 4123A Laclede avenue, wrecked against a telephone pole on the Lemay Ferry road near Mattese, Mo., led to the arrest yesterday of three men and four women on charges of taking the car for a joy ride. Fred Grinham, president of the Triangle Motor Sales Co., 3330 Washington avenue, visited the wreck and identified the machine as one taken from the garage of his company Sunday night. One of the men arrested was a former porter for the company, who still had a key to the garage.

Harry Kassebaum, a farmer, living near Mattese, gave information that led to the discovery of the persons who had used the machine.

Those arrested were: Harry Decker. 20 years old, 3039 Locust street, a former employe of Grinham; Fred Meyer, 23, 2823 Washington avenue; Harry Colestick, 22, 2105 Olive street; Miss Grace Meyer and Mrs. Ora Nichol of 2823 Washington avenue, and Carrie Rehrens and Sallie Gaines of 2020 Olive street. The men were held for the Circuit Attorney, but the women were released.

MOULAN AND LOUISE ALLEN WIN LAUGHS AT THE PARK

Louise Alier, as a perfect nulsance of a boy, helped Frank Moulan to keep the Park Theater's audience laughing at last night's opening of Victor Herbert's "Wisard of the Nile." Moulan was content with being about 120 per cent funnier than his part, which is that of Kibosh, a Persian magician. Anne Bussert, as a blonde Cleopatra, and Arthur Burckly as her music teacher, sang prettily, and Sarah Edwards found a red wig becoming.

An "original prologue," a bara-lawards

An "original prologue," a bare-legged dance, lengthens the performance withcut greatly enriching the world of art.

If You Wear a Watch

we do recommend these gloves because they are Kayser Silk Gloves and we know that they will give our customers value that other silk gloves fail to give, especially the 'cut price' and 'bargain sale' kind.

"Our customers have discovered that only in Kayser Silk Gloves can they be sure of correct style, perfect fit and long wear."

"Why do Kayser Silk Gloves wear so much better?" "It is the quality of the silk fabric. Kayser knows how to make this silk fabric pure and strong. There is no weighting or loading in the silk; you get a silkier glove, one that resists wear and fits better."

"They do fit better—why?" "Because they are cut and made correctly at the factory by experts who have been making silk gloves for 30 years. See for yourself how shapely, how graceful they are:"

"Are all Kayser Silk Gloves perfect?" "Yes, madam, because every Kayser Silk Glove is inspected four times before it gets to you. Each of the four inspectors is paid a bonus in addition to her regular salary for any defect she finds, and the fourth inspector gets four times as large a bonus as the first. This is the care that is taken to make our gloves perfect."

"How do they wash?" "They wash well when you follow directions. Even after repeated washings they look like new, they do not shrink, the seams do not rip and the gloves retain their shape."

"What is the proper way to wash them?" "Use lukewarm water and a pure soap. Do not wring or twist gloves, and rinse them thoroughly because any soap left in the gloves will discolor them. Stretch them into shape, lay flat between a folded towel to dry."

"Do Kayser Gloves come in many styles?" "We have a saying—'There's a Kayser Silk Glove for every occasion.' There are plain gloves for shopping; ruffled 'Queen Elizabeth' for afternoon wear; and plain or tucked and embroidered long gloves for evening."

Kayser Silk Gloves cost no more than the ordinary kind; whether two clasp, twelve button or sixteen button lengths Kayser's always represent the best value at the price. The name Kayser is in the hem and with each pair is a guarantee ticket that the tips will outwear the gloves.

Dobe Hut Was Like Dutch Oven When Set on Fire-Men Chose to Make Dash for Liberty Rather Than Burn to Death Inside.

By CLAIR KENAMORE. Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

EL PASO, Tex., May 9.-Joseph Birck of Milwaukee, a private, yesterday told and I got a few buckshot in the other at the hospital at Fort Bliss of his part in the fight with the bandits at Glenn Springs Friday night.

"I was on guard and was talking to lowed viva Carransa, but that sounded Frank Defrees about 11:45 that night like a bluff, and finally they got the when I heard a lot of men talking and then it was hell. The then saw this bunch dome over the hill about 50 yards away," he said. "I knew which burns like tinder. The heat grew we were in for it and fired pistol shots greater and greater until it was just at them and ran for the tent.

"There I woke the men and got my rifle and we beat it for the dobe house. There were two doors and four windows and we were in a position to put up a side of the building and they could see good fight. For two hours we held them off and it began to look like we might last till daylight, when they commenced trying to set fire to the place.

"We thought if we could hold out till knew our relief of nine was coming, for we were due at the rifle range, and outside. with that assistance we would have been in fine shape.

"We found a little cave about four miles away and stayed there until daylight, When it was good light we crawled to the top of a hill that looked down on the town and saw them looting the store and packing the stuff on their horses. They ware putting their dead on the horses, too. As soon as they were gone we went back to camp. I tied my leg up with a rag and along in the afternoon the trucks came in with our relief. Later I got to a doctor and had the wounds dressed. We did not have any kind of communication at that point, so we had no way to call for help.

"The Mexicans formed skirmish lines in good military manner and they seemed pretty well trained, but the way they yelled was horrible. It was a sort of a blood howl like a coyote. Tyree is reported missing, but I think he is dead up in the mountains. He was wounded n the foot and he would have trouble walking and there is no water at all in the hills. I thought there were about 150 of the bunch, but there may have been more. My wounds do not hurt

FUND FOR COMPOSER'S ORPHANS Spanish Consul Here to Receive

Granados Subscriptions Jose Alvarez, Spanish Consul in St. Louis, whose office is at Grand avenue and Lindell boulevard, has announced that he will receive subscriptions to a fund which is being collected for the six orphan children of Enrique Granados. Spanish composer, who, together with his wife, was drowned when the Sussex was torpedoed by a German subma-rine in the English Channel.

Granados came to the United States last winter to atend the production of his opera, "Goyescas," at the Metropo tan Opera House, New York. This was the first opera in the Spanish language ever sung in the Metropolitan. He and is wife were on their way back to Spain when they were drowned. The younges of their children is 3 years old. The subscription for the children, in this country, has been started by Don Juan Riano, Spanish Ambassador at Washing-

A Startling Wednesday Sale of Suits

It would be startling for the ordinary store, which is not accustomed to announcing That Is, It would be startling for the ordinary store, which is not accustomed to announcing out-of-the-ordinary values with such frequency as Garland's. And even we have gone just a little beyond the limit this time, especially when you consider the fact that the Suits are all new and in the correct styles and fabrics for present and later wear at the Spring and Summer fashion resorts.

@BROKEN LINES, TOO—get that clear, that each of the 31 or 32 lines from which we made this one big lot, were broken to the extent of a size, or color being sold out, or a style missing here and there.

CAND—STOP—LISTEN, get this clear, too, the reason they are broken lines is because they are the "best sellers." That's one of the best ways to judge "best sellers"—when you see the assortments broken.

CBUT, remember, while we are tell-BUT, remember, while we are telling you that there is a size or style missing now and then, or a color or fabric lacking here and there, you'll find every size in most of the styles, and there are over 50 styles—and you'll find every style in most of the sizes, and there are sizes for women 34 to 44 bust and special sizes for misses and small women. had his political hair dyed.

The secret has been let out by a story told by former Gov. Hadley to one of his friends. Here it is:

When John E. Swanger, now also of Sedalia, and candidate against Judge Lamm for Governor, retired as State Bank Commissioner three years ago, his hair was white as snow, although he was only 49 years old.

Swanger went from Jefferson City to St. Louis to become a traveling representative for the Mercantile Trust Co. Soon afterward he appeared in his office at the trust company with his hair dyed jet black—so black, in fact, that bony looked pale in comparison Hadley and Swanger had been inti-mate during their eight years of official life at Jefferson City, but the for-mer Governor failed to recognize Swanger when they met soon after the er's locks. Swager's friends joked he was advertising a new brand of sage

One dyeing was all that Swanger's hair ever got. He decided to use no more artificial coloring matter and to let nature restore his hair to its former distinguished whiteness. But he had Solid Oak Construction o pay the penalty for tampering with the laws of nature, because as'the black began to fade from his hair it turned first to a greenish hue, and then to a

What Judge Lamm Said.

Judge Lamm was discussing the aquor issue when he made the reference to political hair dyeing. He said the Republican party had, in its last two platforms, declared for local option.
"Let us suppose," he said, "that when the platform of the Republican party is adopted next September it stands by its guns and again promulgates a plank in favor of local option—the fair, efficient and full enforcement of local option laws and in favor of some sensi ble form of home rule. Let us suppo that a candidate running on that platform and publicly advocating that doc-trine has had his political hair dyed and privately has pledged himself to repudiate the platform and seeks an election based on the theory, privately given, that if elected he will repudiate the platform. I shook hands with her and spoke to her, but her only response was:

Compulsory Vaccination .
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I notice you publish letters from the people who have something to say on different subjects. and I wish to call your attention to the matter of compulsory vaccination. I admire the stand your paper has taken in the attempt to vindicate St. Louis, but I have my doubts as to the progress you will make, for it seems to me that when a city of 750,000 people will quietly submit to a ruling of the School Board to vaccinate healthy or prohibit them from attending school they haven't much dignity left to vindicate.

I have no objection to offer to the man who wants to have his children vaccinated—let him vaccinate his whole family—but there is no reason, and, thank God, no law, which will compel me to vaccinate mine.

I came here from another city in a distant State to make my home in St. Louis, but before I subvaccination of my child I will leave your beautiful city and there will be another "for rent" sign in a West End flat.

CONGRESS AND MEXICO.

There is significance in the fact that or the day Congress rejected the Senate amendments providing 250,000 instead of 140,000 pegulars and a volunteer Federal reserve army, Gen. Obregon demanded that American troops shandon pursuit of Villa raiders and immediately retire from Mexican soil, threatening attack by Mexican soldiers if his demands were not obeyed.

The insolence and unreasonableness of the demand were emphasized by the Glenn Springs raid and the previous apparent acquiescence with our plan of fuller co-operation with Mexican troops. Knowing the military weakness of the United States and the majority sentiment of the House against adequate military preparation, to meet the emergency, he grasped what he regarded as the opportune moment to strike.

He thought the Government's helplessness coupled with his own treacherous preparations would give him an easy and bloodless victory. He stands for the allies American honor and interthought he could, with a timely stroke, achieve his ambition to become the powerful and popular leader in Mexico.

It is a shameful reflection on the judgment of the House of Representatives and its loyalty to Springs raid, in the face of the critical Mexican situation, where American civilians and soldiers. American honor and interest were endangered, it should defeat such necessary and reasonable measures of preparedness. It is a betrayal of the nation's vital interests, having the gravity without the nature and the character of treason.

The Government is terribly embarrassed in this crisis of the Mexican problem. Its power is undermined, its prestige and influence are weakened. The Mexican chiefs are strengthened and emboldened to deny and defy the American Government. War, which might have been averted by wise, strong action, is invited.

CONVIVIALITY SUNDAY EVE

Here's a night watchman's observation of some nnocent St. Louisans in pursuit of a drink Sun-

They (the suspects) sneaked along close to the wall till they came to the door of the grocery, then they looked up and down the street. One stayed on the corner as a lookout. The others went in, and came out carrying things under their arms. I was sure they were burglars, and rang for the wagon.

In the contemplation of blue-nosed gloon which wears the aspect of righteousness here abouts these thirsty revelers are worse than bur glars. In the dark lexicon of puritanical piety the crime of crimes is conviviality, and the prime purpose of civilization is to prevent anybody's having a good time, but to compel everybody to sing psalms while the reformers sit in the high places and take up the collection. Just the same, production of a suggestive picture, with at least the plight of a thirsty St. Louisan Sunday evening is bound to compel a measure of human sympathy from outside the gloom zone.

As a professor of history, Roland G. Usher may be expected to give careful attention to a Postmasters-General, to an article printed under Mr. Usher's name on the railway mail service.

In rather extreme and even violent forms of statement, certain familiar and wholly ex-parte men whose own record is not blameless directing charges and other propaganda matter with which police affairs the public is apt to draw embarthe public has been familiarized by the railread lobby at Washington were given the authority of Prof. Usher's indorsement in the article referred to, which was published as syndicate stuff by a

Applying the usual exacting methods of historical research, doubtless he will now sift the new facts cited by Mr. Praeger and give the public the benefit of his maturer conclusions. Out of 16 statements in "Discoverer" Usher's article Mr. Praeger can find only 11 that are due to erroneous impressions. Is the professor improving in accuracy?

SUCH A WASTE!

Referring to the lack of paper in Germany, the Sovernment has issued the following announce ment through the daily press and in posters:

Millions of letters are written daily with only a half rage covered by the written matter; and yet the entire page is forwarded. We insist that this scandalous and unnecessary wastefulness be checked. Make your letters short and to the point, and confine them to a half page. Save the other half for another letter. If every office throughout the country will follow these instructions our paper famwill be relieved; and if letters to the front will be found without a rational economy of punitive measure.

AMERICA SECOND.

Members of the Citizens' League for America and the Allies, which met in Tremont Temple Boston, on "Lusitania day." have a right to express their opinions on the Government's for eign policy. If they believe that America should go to war with Germany to vindicate American honor and right they are free to say so.

The organization, however, is not American It professedly stands for America and the allies. It tries to serve two masters—an impossible task. If it stands for America, first, last and all the time, it cannot stand for the allies; if it ests are second. Neutrality and impartiality are out of the question, while single-hearted devotion to the interests of this country is not possible when it is linked in the hearts of its mem bers with other countries.

We do not expect from the league unprejudiced American interests that the day after the Glenn and loyal American opinion, but we had a right to expect from such men as Prof. William Roscoe Thayer of Harvard, James M. GOV. MAJOR'S DARING EXPERIMENT.

Did Goy. Major know of Norman Vaughan's record when he selected him as St. Louis Police Commissioner to succeed Charles P. Williams?

Mr. Vaughan was convicted and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for shooting and killing Hayden Loring in this city in November, 1904. Twenty-five months after the crime he was pardoned by Gov. Folk during the pendency of an appeal from the verdict.

It is not dogmatically to be held that an early nisstep bars a citizen from preferment during subsequent years of correct living. Many men have made amends in valuable public service for past misconduct.

A Police Commissioner, however, is an official of peculiar responsibility. The standards governing eligibility to this office, in which the confidence of the community is so important to suc cess, are somewhat different from the standards governing selections for other offices-such an office, for instance, as that of secretary to the Missouri Commission on the Panama Exposition to which Mr. Vaughan had previously been

MR. ANTWINE ON MISSOURI FINANCES.

AM very much afraid that in the hue and cry after the men at Jefferson City who have failed to make ends meet we are blinding ourselves to the probability that Missouri is not raising enough money by taxation to maintain herself," Mr. Antwine said. "I don't rank the present governor with the Rothschilds as a financier, but I doubt if one of the Rothschilds could finance Missouri on what is available under the present tax rate as taxes are collected. It is expecting too much of any poabout it. We have a one-suspender idea at the State capital that makes it dangerous to say anything about a reform of that sort. The farmers, who are letting the people in the big cities pay what taxes we are collecting, are supposed to be lying in fence corners for the man or the party suggesting that taxes should be better equalized and increased, and this bugaboo will probably hold us down to the present mess for some time to come.

"I wonder if it would not be a good idea to throw all the men out and let the women run Missouri a while? Certainly they could make no more heyday for the hillbilly than the men have made. We are all the way from ten to fifty years behind every progressive state in the Union, and it's all because we are afraid of asking the people to pay for what good things cost. This State needs a man with good iron in his backbone and a cutting edge on his voice worse than any state north of the Mason and Dixon line. Such a man could tell Missouri things she needs to have told her, and he would not be afraid to snap his fingers under her nose. We have no state government, and we never shall have one until we have money to maintain it. We have a makeshift government out of the political 10-cent store. When I think of Missouri and her possibilities I get mad. I want to go out and tear something down. I want to yellswear-jump up and down. If there was ever a fool community on earth, it is that making up the State of Missouri. A few spindle-shanked and pin-headed nobodies lead us around in a circle until we don't know the way out of darkness into light. We don't have men in the public service. We have families. We pride ourselves on our provincialism, and we shy from anyone seeming to have brains. Good government costs money. If we mean to have it in Missouri. we must pay for it. We can no more do without money than we can do without men. The reason we have at Jefferson City a lot of little peanut politicians who could not hold down a job whistling for a peanut roaster in any other than the public's business is because we finance that kind of a government and naturally attract that kind of men. Somebody will say this to Missouri some day in tones of thunder. will a now it is true and thing about it. When the great crater of Krakatoa blew up ashes drifted around the world. That is nothing. When we bust up that moth-eaten government of ours at Jefferson City dust will fall upon

BERLIN, May 7, by wireless to Sayville.—There is increasing indignation in American business circles in Germany over the British holding of American mails. Letters mailed in New York the first two weeks in January arrived in the last few days. Letters of the first week in February are just beginning to come, and all were opened and held in England. This includes letters addressed to Consul-General Day.

In all cases, it appears, the letters were of a wholly unsuspicious character. American newspapers appear to have been stopped entirely. The Post-Dispatch correspondent got only four American Letters, Held in England, Developed a Pose, Cleveland Is Making Pennant Drive Without Chapman, Star Shortstop.

The first intersectional series of the season will be inaugurated today, although New York and Pittsburg are the only National League clubs to A full schedule will be played in the American.

From this time on students of dope will be able to get a better line on the pennant pretenders. They will be able to determine whether Cleve-

FStregression is chronic; whether the
Browns are destined for first or second division, and whether the Cardinal fuveniles have the staying powers of a first division club.

There is no reason for believing that the absence of Beck will minimize the Cardinals' chances against the Oriental members of the N. L. circuit. Huggins, many railbirds contend, has a better defense with Corhan guarding the gap at short, while it is particularly fortunate that the weather has improved so as not to permanently endanger Roy's whip.

The Cardinal pitchers are in better shape than they have been at any time this season. Withel they have hurled their way to an even break, 10—10, on the senson. They did this without any early assistance from Ames and Sallee. These seasoned workmen now are ready and there is every prospect that the club will be well fortifield on Hurling Hill.

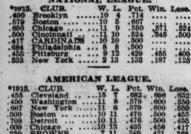

Chapman Isn't Missed.

It is important that fans don't overlook the fact that Cleveland is overlook the fact that Cleveland is driving right through without the services of Ray Chapman, deemed one of the best shortstops in the American League. Chapman is in a hospital and will be shelved for at least two more weeks. He has the same trouble with his ankle that Ernie Johnson suffered. Johnson was out for six weeks, from the time he was bumped off at Brockett, Tex.
When Chapman went out of the Cleveland box score Ivan Howard, a Brown discard, came in. Howard is closer to 36 than he is to 30 years old. He's not fast and his eye has lost some of its keenness; but Howard is doing for Cleveland just what he did for the Browns. He's winning.

Attention is called to the fact that the ex-Federal players in the National League are prospering more than their brethren over in the American. Perhaps the going in the N. L. is more suited to their speed than the traveling in the younger body.

The Browns got back on their stride yesterday taking Olean, N. Y., lond camp by the score of 3 to 1. Marsans sprained his ankle, though, doing it. On to Washington:

Walter Johnson was hammered off the slab by the Mackmen yesterday. That augurs rather poorly for the Browns. Walt will have to wreak vengeance on somebody.

The Cleveland Indians have com-piled a string of eight straight victor-ies. Wouldn't it look funny to see old Grover Lowdermilk cutting into a world's series melon? It would.

We have today another open date. But why repine? We have gone for whole seasons at a stretch without any baseball to speak of.

The mound exhibition given by Crandall leads Manager Jones to believe that the big right-hander is now ready to take his turn in the box whenever called upon. Crandall was touched for only seven scattered hits and he gave but one pass. The one error made by Deal was mainly responsible for Olean's solitary score.

The feature of the contest was Ernle Johnson's steal of home while Pitcher Artman held the ball. Marsans sent a line drive clear to the right field fence in the ninth, but in rounding first base the Cuban got his fact langled and fell. He was of the opinion that he had hurt his ankle and was touched out after the ball had been thrown to the first baseman. It was soon learned that Marsans was not seriously hurt, and he will play in the first game at Washington.

Neglect With Which Marathon Was Handled Is Indicative of Popular Tendency at New Club to Discourage Sport, He Says-Old Spirit Lacking.

By Joe Forshaw,

Winner of the 1905 M. A. C. Marathon and Member of the American Olympic Teams at Athens, London and Stockholm.

NLY a few years ago the annual Marathon of the Missouri Athletic Club was the Western Athletic classic and made the old M. A. C. KERN VS. CYCLONE DALY known from one end of the country to the other, even in foreign lands. The M. A. C.'s marathon runners were members of the American Olympic teams and acquitted themselves well with the world's best athletes. Semi-Windup Promises to Be Likewise her swimmers competed in London and Athens, giving the club favorable mention in the press of the country, thereby stamping St. Louis, home of red-blooded manhood that teur sport.

Today, instead of the 35 or 40 runners we used to see lined up for the marathon, we find a paltry dozen and the majority of them from out of town. This year one enthusiastic runner came from New York at great personal expense and the loss of valuable time, but from St. Louis there are very few starters, and in this event, as in others, the M. A. A. does not have a very strong representation. Club and the Post-Disputer
Boxing Authority.

Johnny ("Kid") Alberts, the New York middleweight who boxes Tom Burke at the Future City Athletic Club tonight, arrived in St. Louis Sunday evening and a glimpse at him was enough to justify the conclusion that he is a fighter. He shows the marks of many ring battles, the most conspicuous of which are a badly cauliflowered ear and a scar under Coldness Towards Sport. cauliflowered ear and a scar under the eye where some boxer had gashed

it wide open.
Alberts claims to have had more than 300 ring encounters. He is managed by Leo P. Flynn, who has recently put Bill (Shanks) Brennan in the heavyweight limelight.
Alberts was the first man boxed by Burke when the latter made his first trip East, going there with Packey
McFarland last September when McFarland boxed Mike Gibbons in New York City. All these things cannot but impress me very forcibly with the idea that something is radically wrong, for in other cities, from all reports, interest is as great as ever. The natural question, therefore, is: "What's the matter with the M. A. A.?"

tion, therefore, is: "What's the matter with the M. A. A."

There is something the "matter with the M. A. A." and the object of this article is to give those interested an inkling of what that something may be. There is a coldness toward sport in the very atmosphere of the new place, and a lack of the spirit that made the old M. A. C. famous.

The writer has been associated with the M. A. A., and its predecessor, the M. A. C., since January 1904, and frankly but modestly admits his efforts have been untiring to put the club on the map.

However the changing of the maration course this year seems almost a well laid plan to kill that event tofore held brought together many democratic and equal footing. The dinner at the start, the all-day picnic some of us made of it, the auto parties that were gotten up for the day, the little inconveniences we put up with it can never be developed in luxurious easy chairs around well-provisioned tables.

The was recently held an indoor meet and it was a credit to the asy chairs around well-provisioned tables.

Indoor Meet a Success.

Then, again, we recently held an indoor meet and it was a credit to the was the eternal whine about a loss of $400 or $500!

For several days before the meet

Al most Necessary to Sacrifice Selfnd not at all choice in the sort of and not at all choice in the sort of language he uses. When Burke stepped from the ring after his bout with Alberts he asked Flynn what he thought of the fight.

"What did I think of it?" roared Flynn. "Why, if it had gone a couple of more rounds my dog would have chewed your neck off!"

"Dog" is a term of endearment used by Flynn when referring to fighters under his management. However, he is a very good manager, gets them plenty of work and is loud in his praise of them. At the present time he has made the New York fight fans sit up and take particular notice of Brennah. The latter has been fighting for about two years, under the name of Shanks. Flynn made him change back to his own name of Brennan, and as such he is now being exploited as the coming champion. Brennan was born in County Mayo, Ireland, and fights at 195 pounds. To date he has scored 27 knockout in 31 engagements.

International Fame JOE FORSHAW is one of the few St. Louis athletes who has won don; he finished third in the Olympic marathon, the best showing ever-made by a local man in the world's-greatest athletic classic. He special-ized on distance running and was easily the most consistent star turned out here. His record: 1900—Won the first M. A. C. mar-athon. 1906—Finished ninth in Olympie-run at Athens (Greece) in a field of 91 starters. 1907—Fourth in M. A. C. marathon. 1908—Third in London Olympic; Si starters.

Mayor to Insist on Reduction Before Corporation Is Allowed to Pipe In Product.

Mayor Mollman of East St. Louis said today that the St. Clair County Gas and Electric Co. will not be allowed nnect with the pipe line from the natural gas wells at Staunton, Ill., tuation of prices, in most of t transactions, of the significance th until the company consents to a satisfactory reduction in the gas rates.

today, and deprived the aimless fluctuation of prices, in most of the anatural gas wells at Stanton, Ill., until the company consents to a satisfactory reduction in the gas rates.

Councilman S. J. Fowier surprised the Council last night by announcing that the pipe line has reached Edwardsville, and is being laid toward East St. Louis. Fowler also made known that the local gas company recently had its charter changed to allow it to distribute natural gas.

Fowler produced statistics to show that natural gas can be sold in East St. Louis at a maximum of 55 cents per 1000 cubic feet. East St. Louis. now pays 31 per 1000, cubic feet or manufactured gas.

The pipe line is being laid by the Cahokia Gas and Oil Co., which was incorporated by C. H. Queckenbush, president of the St. Clair County Gas and Electric Co.; Thomas Gillesple, the company's attorney, and Fred Stingoetter, a bookkeeper for the company. The Cahokia Gas and Oil Co. proposes to buy the gas from the producing companies in the various towns.

Control Is the Same.

Gillesple today admitted to a Post-Dispatch reporter that the Cahokia Gas and Oil Co. rective the company at Staunton and sell it to the distributing companies in the various towns.

Staunton fields contain 12 wells, which are producing 100,000,000 cubic feet a day, and that the field is being enlarged.

Councilmen Back Demand.

The Councilmen, several of whom have opposed Fowler's agitation of the gas question, were unanimous last night in backing his demand that the company be prevented from bringing the gas into East St. Louis until the rates are lowered.

Mayor Mollman admitted today that the gas company had told him previously that they intended to bring natther a the gas company had told him previously that they intended to bring native ural gas to East St. Louis, but said he did not take the statement seriously. He does now, however, he said.

The situation is very similar to that which arose when a water franchise was to be granted two years ago. The city could have forced a reduction of rates by refusing to grant the franchise until it was made, but the measure was rushed through, and then the city had to complain to the Utility Commission.

Mayor Mollman said he would visit mittended to appear before the Council next Monday and make a statement of their intentions regarding the natural gas to the fight of that city for lower rates upon the officers of the company will be invited to appear before the Council next Monday and make a statement of their intentions regarding the natural gas to the fight of that city for lower rates upon the officers of the company will be invited to appear before the Council next Monday and make a statement of their intentions regarding the natural gas the natural gas the proposition. Some of the Councilmen said last night these statements would have to be made on the floor of the Council, and not in the secret caucus.

with the tremendous snipments of last year, before exports of manufactured material got into full swing.
"Quotations for Scandinavian exchange threaten to become almost meaningless, unless the market is somehow placed on a broader basis than at present exists. Today's quotations varied considerably, ranging up to as high as 30.85 for the Stockholm check.
"Transactions continue on a narrow basis, with prices nearly nominal. In a market where an adverse movement cannot be rectified by remittances of gold, quotations eventually come to have little significance.
"Sterling was slightly lower, under the pressure of heavy offering of commodity bills, but this was offset, in park, by good buying of cables by houses identified with British and French financing in this country.

"Italian and French exchange also showed a slightly easier tendency." 5.000 N. Y. & N. H. 6s 6.000 lowa Central 4s. 12.000 B. Y. Cs. 1.000 Sou. Pac. cv. 4s. 2.000 St. Paul cv. 4s. 6.000 N. Y. City Ry. adj. 5s. 10.000 R. I. rf. 4s. 2.000 Atch. gen. 4s. 4.000 N. Y. Cen. 44s. 1.000 Sou. Pac. cv. 4s.

Minneapolis stocks of wheat decreased 200,000 bu for three days.

Bradstreet's showed the available supply of wheat increased 2,552,000 bu last week; corn decreased 1,652,000 bu; oats decreased $28,000 bu.

Russell's News: "New York wired: There was light business reported in wheat on overnight offers. There was no special demand early. One exporter again said that the business from day to day is being underestimated and that in the past six weeks his house alone had sold more than 2,000,000 bushels of wheat. Cash wheat at the Gulf is firmer, premiums having gained about 2c a bushel the past week or so. Offerings of cash wheat in the Southwest are reported small."

New York wired: "Export sales up to 1.30 p. m. today were estimated at about 1,000,000 bushels Manitoba wheat. There were reports of about 700,000 bushels oats taken for export."

Le Count wired from Anthony, Kan.: "From Wichita to Weilington crop is aported. Lots of thin fields, but greater part gives promise of fair crop. Lots of greenbugs, but think there is little danger from bugs. Some Hessian fly, but not so numerous as last year. Soil very dry and crops need rain badly."

Minneapolis wired: "Wheat slower. Local mill buyers indifferent to ordinary grains. Blue stem No. 1 northern, 2% of So over May. Only fancy brings better than 5c over. Velvet chaff, 1½c to 2c over. Flour business poor and shipping directions light."

Total clearances of wheat were 1,413.-00 bu; flour, 32,000 burcels: wheat and flour. 1,557,000 bu; corn. 214,000 bu; oats, 282,000 bu.

CHICAGO. May 9.—Predictions of showers in the Southwest, where there have been complaints that the soil was excessively dry and the crops badly in need of rain, put the wheat market today on the down grade Eefore the weather forecast had been issued, prices were slightly firmer in sympathy with an advance at Liverpool. The Government crop report was forgotten, having been apparently discounted in advance.

Opening prices, which ranged from the with May at $1.14% and is 1.15% to $1.16 were followed by a decided general setback from which there was only a moderate reaction. Later the market was strong on bug damage reports.

Corn swayed with wheat. The market, although firm at the start, declined rapidly when wheat became weak. After opening late to %c higher, prices dropped to well below yeaterday's finish.

Oats had no independent action, trade was light.
